

Turn Cricket Red Terms & Conditions

Thank you very much for organising an activity to raise funds for the Ruth Strauss Foundation.

For details on how the Ruth Strauss Foundation (RSF) uses the personal data we collect from you when you participate in the campaign, see point 1.18 and 3.3 below and please read our Privacy Policy: ruthstraussfoundation.com/privacy-policy for more details on how we process your data.

1. Prize draw terms and conditions

1.1 The promoter of this competition is the Ruth Strauss Foundation.

1.2 By entering this competition, the participant is indicating their agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

1.3 The competitions are open to residents of the United Kingdom aged 18 years or over except employees of the Ruth Strauss Foundation, and their close relatives and anyone otherwise connected with the organisation or judging of the competition.

1.4 There is no entry fee and no purchase necessary to enter the competition.

1.5 Route to entry for the competition(s) will be for individuals registering their organisations participation in the "Turn Cricket Red" fundraising campaign. Details of how individual prizes and entry requirements for each will be shared online at ruthstraussfoundation.com/host-your-own.

1.6 Closing date for entry to Turn Cricket Red competitions will be Monday 30 September 2025. After this date no further entries to the competition will be permitted, however participation in the campaign and fundraising for RSF may continue beyond this date.

1.7 No responsibility can be accepted for entries not received for whatever reason.

1.8 The rules of the competition and how to enter are as follows:

- a) Register your Turn Cricket Red participation via the registration form on the Ruth Strauss Foundation Funraisin website. You will need to include, as a minimum, a name and email address as a point of contact for your organisation.
- b) Participate in the campaign by fundraising for RSF. There are no stipulations on what activity must be undertaken to raise funds. There is no minimum fundraising requirement.
- c) Your funds must be paid in via the Funraisin website to be considered entered into the competition(s). If you wish to pay in part or all of your fundraising by another method, you may do so, but it may affect your competition entry. The promoter's decision is final.
- d) Postal entries for the draw prizes only can be accepted in writing to: Turn Cricket Red, Ruth Strauss Foundation, c/o ECB, Lord's Cricket Ground, London, NW8 8QN. Please provide your name, address and phone number.
- e) Multiple entries from the same organisation or individual are not permitted and will be disqualified.

1.9 The promoter reserves the right to cancel or amend the competition and these terms and conditions without notice in the event of a catastrophe, war, civil or military disturbance, act of God or any actual or anticipated breach of any applicable law or regulation or any other event outside of the promoter's control. Any changes to the competition will be notified to entrants as soon as possible by the promoter.

1.10 The promoter is not responsible for inaccurate prize details supplied to any entrant by any third party connected with this competition.

1.11 The prizes are as stated, and no cash or other alternatives will be offered. The prizes are not transferable. Prizes are subject to availability, and we reserve the right to substitute any prize with another of equivalent value without giving notice.

1.12 Unless expressly stated in these terms and conditions, all expenses connected with redemption of the prize(s) are the responsibility of the prize winner including but not limited to meals, spending money, transportation, drinks, incidentals, accommodation, optional activities or excursions and all other ancillary costs.

1.13 Winners will be chosen by the promoter. Prize draw winners will be chosen using a random number generator. The winners of other prizes will be chosen by a panel of judges, including staff and ambassadors of RSF, whose decision will be final and not contested. For full details of the prizes and conditions, see point 10.

1.14 The winning organisation(s) will be notified via email within 28 days of the closing date, via the individual details used at registration. If the winners cannot be contacted or do not claim the prize within 14 days of notification, we reserve the right to withdraw the prize from the winner and pick a replacement winner.

1.15 The promoter will notify the winner(s) how the prize will be fulfilled and arrange through the named contact as liaison how the winning organisation(s) can redeem.

1.16 The promoter's decision in respect of all matters to do with the competition will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

1.17 The competition and these terms and conditions will be governed by English law and any disputes will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.

1.18 All entrants agree to the use of his/her name, their organisation's name, and image in any publicity material, as well as their entry. Any personal data relating to the winner, the winning clubs or any other entrants will be used solely in accordance with current UK data protection legislation and will not be disclosed to a third party without the entrant's prior consent.

1.19 The winning club names will be available 28 days after closing date by emailing the following address: clubs@ruthstraussfoundation.com

1.20 Entry into the competition will be deemed as acceptance of these terms and conditions.

1.21 This promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed or administered by, or associated with, Facebook, X (formerly Twitter), Instagram or any other Social Network. You are providing your information to Ruth Strauss Foundation and Funraisin, the chosen fundraising platform by Ruth Strauss Foundation for the purpose of this campaign.

2. General participation terms and conditions

Registration Process

2.1 Registration to participate in the campaign "Turn Cricket Red" is deemed acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.

2.2 The opportunity to register is open to all participant(s).

2.3 To register participant(s) must log onto the fundraising website during the registration period, and provide relevant details including (but not limited to):

a) name

b) authorised position in the cricket club or association or school or group on whose behalf the registration is made

c) address

d) and e-mail address.

2.4 Registration represents a commitment by the participant(s) to raise funds for the benefit of the Ruth Strauss Foundation on the date stated during registration.

2.5 Persons under the age of 18 are ineligible to register on behalf of the participant(s).

2.6 Incomplete or incomprehensible entries of registration details will not constitute a valid registration.

3. Turn Cricket Red event packs and stumps

3.1 Where a participant has made a commitment to fundraise for RSF, the participant may elect to be provided with a Turn Cricket Red event pack to assist with the fundraising activities.

3.2 Where a participant has elected to receive the event pack, the Foundation will deliver the event pack to the participant. The pack will be delivered to the participant named in the registration details. Event packs cannot be transferred or redeemed for cash.

3.3 Your name and address details will be passed to our third-party fulfilment company for the sole purpose of fulfilling the event packs. Your details will not be used by them for any marketing purposes or passed on to any other organisation.

3.4 The Foundation makes no representation or claim about the value of the event pack. There is no correlation between the value of the event pack (or the support that the Foundation provides) and the value of the fundraising.

3.5 The Foundation will provide one pack to the first 150 participants that elect to receive an event pack. Any additional participants above the first 150 will receive packs subject to availability.

3.6 No additional event packs will be supplied based on the amount that the participant has committed to fundraising.

3.7 RSF branded stumps will be provided to the first 100 participants that register an event. RSF will be in touch with you to confirm if you are eligible and these will be delivered to you at the address used at registration.

3.8 If the participating group already has RSF branded stumps, an alternative may be requested. Subject to stock availability.

3.9 Multiple registrations under the same details will not receive additional event packs, unless there is a clear distinction between the participant(s) organisations. If you require additional assets to fundraise, for example hosting multiple events for the same organisation, please discuss with the RSF team clubs@ruthstraussfoundation.com.

3.10 In the case of the intervention of any outside agent or event which prevents or hinders the event packs being distributed to the participant(s) prior to the event date, including but not limited to problems hindering supply, the campaign will go ahead as scheduled and the event packs will be provided to participant(s) as soon as practicable.

3.11 The participant(s) agrees that if, for any reason, this promotion is not able to run as planned, including but not limited to, vandalism, power failures, tempests, natural disasters, acts of God, civil unrest, strikes, or illness, or any other causes beyond the control of the participant(s), the participant(s) will, in consultation with the Foundation, reschedule the event date.

3.12 The Foundation accepts no responsibility for any kind of loss or liability suffered or incurred by any of the participant(s) in connection with the event packs. The participant(s) release RSF, its related bodies corporate, affiliates, officers, agents and employees, from all liability, loss and damage of any kind arising at any time out of or in connection with the nomination to receive an event pack, and with the contents and use of the individual items contained in the packs. Without limiting the foregoing, the released parties will not be liable for any injury, sickness or death, property loss or damage or other direct or indirect loss or damage of any kind, howsoever sustained or incurred, in connection with or arising out of the event pack except those that cannot be excluded by law.

4. Fundraising

4.1 Once the participant has submitted their registration through the Funraisin website, our dedicated fundraising platform, the participant will receive a welcome email from RSF via Funraisin which will include details around setting up their fundraising page.

4.2 The participant may then fundraise in any way they choose, as long as they adhere to UK Fundraising Code of Practise. If you have any questions, please contact RSF to discuss.

4.3 We will contact you periodically with updates on the campaign, fundraising information, and other information on RSF activity. You can opt out of these emails at any time. For more details, please see the RSF Privacy Policy.

4.4 The participant may use any of the promotional assets provided to promote their event. If you create additional assets, they must submit any promotional materials that it would like to include in its fundraiser to the Foundation for review and approve, prior to printing or distributing any promotional materials.

4.6 Funds must be remitted to the charity within eight weeks of the fundraiser/event and the participant must pay in funds via Funraisin, our dedicated online fundraising platform, that was created upon registration. If you wish to pay in funds by an alternative method, please contact RSF as soon as practical to discuss.

4.7 The participant will be responsible for all costs associated with your fundraising activity.

5. Conduct

5.1 At all times before, during and after the fundraising activity, the participant (and its agents and employees) must conduct itself in a manner which reflects the objectives of the Foundation and does not harm or diminish the Foundation's good name in the community. The participant must also make sure that each person involved in its activity conducts themselves with decency, dignity and good taste.

5.2 The participant must not solicit public donations through general door-to-door, street or telephone collections or in public places such as shopping centres or on public transport. People under 18 collecting donations or money must have an adult with them supervising the collection at all times. For the current guidance on fundraising, please review the Fundraising Code of Practice or seek advice from RSF.

5.3 The Foundation reserves the right to review, disassociate itself or request removal as the beneficiary charity from any fundraising activity if the registered fundraising activity is, in its belief, inappropriate or may harm or diminish the Foundation's good name.

6. Using the Ruth Strauss Foundation's name and logo

6.1 If the participant fundraises for RSF, it will have the right to use the Foundation's name and 'Supporting' logo in connection with the participant's fundraising activity, at no charge. This limited right to use the Foundation's name and logo is granted only to the participant and is not transferable to any third party.

6.2 The participant must not use any of the Foundation's other intellectual property without the Foundation's written consent.

6.3 If the Foundation directs the participant to stop using any of our intellectual property (including our name or logo) you must do so immediately. The participant must fully compensate the Foundation for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability that the Foundation incurs as a result of the participant's misuse of our intellectual property.

6.4 If the Foundation supplies you with any promotional material, the participant must use that promotional material only for the activity for which it has been granted and only in accordance with the Foundation's brand guidelines. The participant must return any unused material to the Foundation at its request.

6.5 If the participant plans to publish any promotional material for its fundraising activity (including invitations, advertisements and website copy) that includes the Foundation's name or our logo, the participant must obtain the Foundation's approval of that material (and any changes to it) before its publication.

7. Complying with laws

When fundraising for the Foundation's benefit the participant must comply with all laws and regulations relating to charitable fundraising.

8. Complaints

If either party receives a complaint or grievance from a member of the public or an employee relating to the participant's fundraising activity, then the notified party must notify the other as soon as possible. The parties will use their best endeavours to resolve any such complaint or grievance as soon as possible and, at the latest, within 28 days of the day it was first received. You can read our full Complaints policy on our website.

9. Insurance

The participant's activity will not be covered by the Foundation's public liability insurance. The participant must ensure that its own insurance policies cover it for all insurable risks associated with the fundraising activity.
